

Air Force Missileers Hall of Fame Program

Background

The Association of Air Force Missileers (AAFAM) is committed to preservation and celebration of U.S. Air Force missile heritage, advocating for the nuclear deterrence mission since 1993. The AAFAM Board of Directors voted to establish an Air Force Missileers Hall of Fame (AFM HOF), recognizing individuals who have significantly contributed to success of this enduring mission in the areas of operations, maintenance, security, supply, engineering, services, and special duty assignments.

Call for Nominees

The AAFAM Board of Directors is publicly announcing a call for nominees for the inaugural class of AFM HOF.

To qualify for consideration, nominees must have:

1. Made significant contributions towards the development, operations, maintenance, security, and support of the nation's missile force, including USAF nuclear missile weapons systems: Snark, Matador/Mace, Thor, Atlas, Titan, Minuteman, Ground Launched Cruise Missiles, small ICBM, Peacekeeper, Ground Based Strategic Deterrent, and others.
2. Exhibited characteristics that prove them to be noteworthy in all areas of work, discipline, reliability, aptitude, achievement, responsibility, and motivation through a lifetime of support to the USAF missile enterprise or through a single event that warrants consideration for induction into the HOF.
3. Eligibility includes Air Force officers, NCOs, and civilians (DoD, contractors, political figures).
4. Nominees need not be members of AAFAM.

Scoring Criteria

Applications for the AFM HOF will be scored using the following selection criteria:

1. Career Missile Accomplishments
2. Contributions to the USAF Missile Mission
3. Missile Assignments
4. Leadership
5. Personal Character
6. Community Service:
